Evening Planets:
Jupiter will be visible in the southeast throughout June and moving toward the southern sky by the end of the month. Saturn will begin rising into the southeast about halfway through the month and will remain there through the end of June.

Morning Planets:
Saturn will be in the southwest sky throughout June. Jupiter will also be visible in the southwest for most June mornings but will begin to set by the end of the month.

Phases of the Moon
- New Moon: June 3rd
- 1st Quarter: June 10th
- Full Moon: June 17th
- 3rd Quarter: June 25th
SHOW SCHEDULE

JUNE 1-15
In My Backyard - Through June 9: 12 p.m. Sat. & Sun.
Wonders of the Arctic - 1 p.m. Sat. & Sun.
and 8 p.m. Thurs., Fri. & Sat.
The Life of Trees - Through June 9: 2 p.m. Sat. & Sun.
Skies Over Michigan - 3 p.m. Daily
Journey to Space - 4 p.m. daily and 7 p.m. Thurs., Fri. & Sat.

JUNE 15-30
Accidental Astronauts - Begins June 15: 12 p.m. daily
Wonders of the Arctic - 1 p.m. daily
We Are Stars - Begins June 15: 2 p.m. Sat. & Sun.
Skies Over Michigan - 3 p.m. Daily
Journey to Space - 4 p.m. daily and 7 p.m. Thurs., Fri. & Sat.
Dark Side: The Light Show - Begins June 20:
8 p.m. Thurs., Fri. & Sat.